

COLONEL SCOTT D. KING
COMMANDER, 194th Armored Brigade

COL King graduated from the United States Military Academy in 1988 and has served, fought and studied in Germany, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Iraq, Kosovo, Kentucky, Louisiana, Kansas, Pennsylvania, and Georgia.

COL King was assigned to 1st Battalion, 34th Armor; 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 1st Squadron, 16th Cavalry Regiment; 256th Infantry Brigade, Louisiana National Guard; HQ, 1st Infantry Division; 1st Battalion, 18th Infantry Regiment; 1st Battalion, 77th Armor; 2nd Brigade, 1st Infantry Division; US Army Battle Command Training Program; US Army Armor School; and US Army War College. His duties include Tank Platoon Leader, Mortar Platoon Leader, HHC Executive Officer, Battalion S4, AOBC Instructor, Troop Commander, Active Army Advisor to National Guard, Battalion S3, Battalion Executive Officer, Chief Observer/Trainer, Squadron Commander, Director of Armor School, Assistant Director of Joint Education, and Deputy Commandant Armor School.

COL King's combat and contingency tours include Operation Desert Shield/Storm, Kosovo 4A, and Operation Iraqi Freedom II.

COL King is a graduate of the U.S. Army War College, the Command and General Staff College, and Louisiana Tech University where he received a Masters in Business Administration. He also served as President of the Fort Knox Community Schools School Board from 2008-2010 and was a 2011-2012 Fellow with the Pennsylvania Education Policy Fellowship Program. His awards include the Bronze Star Medal with oak leaf cluster, Meritorious Service Medal with 4 oak leaf clusters, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal the Saudi Liberation Medal, and the Kuwaiti Liberation Medal.